Sample Grammar Items
1.	"Mr. Alan Freeman". As I heard these words boo admit I (a) am feeling a slight flutte (b) had felt (c) felt (d) had been feeling	om over the loudspeaker, I must ering in my stomach.
Answer: c
2.	For the last four years now, Matt Magoffin, a catt	le rancher (a) has been trucking (b) was trucking (c) is trucking (d) had been trucking
	waste to a half dozen custom-built ponds and tank	. ,
Answer: a
3.	They are scheduled to start digging Friday morning. At that time, for the most part they (a) hammer through solid ice. (b) are hammering (c) will have been hammering (d) will be hammering
Answer: d
4.	Androstenedione is legal in the United States, and currently professional baseball players (a) have had a right to use it. (b) have (c) will have (d) are having
Answer: b
5.	The House has soundly rejected a measure that	(a) would have rejected (b) would reject (c) could reject (d) must have rejected a bill banning job discrimination against federal workers.
Answer: a		