

Winter Semester 2018/19

Courses in English

for Incoming Bachelor Students

An overview of all courses (German and English) is available via the regular course catalogue. Please have a look here: <http://tinygu.de/verzeichnisfb03>. At the Faculty of Social Sciences, all courses are generally open for ERASMUS students (with some exceptions, e.g. the second part of a course from the last term). Bachelor students should register for courses on a B.A. level and Master students for courses on a M.A. level. However, advanced Bachelor students have the opportunity to register for Master seminars as well.

<sup>1</sup> Proseminar: An introductory course on a Bachelor level that aims to teach and provide scientific knowledge discussing current problems by applying scientific methods. Usually, active participation is mandatory. If you only attend, you will gain 3 ECTS. If you take an exam/paper, you will gain 7 ECTS.

<sup>2</sup> Seminar: An advanced course on a Master level that provides scientific knowledge discussing current problems by applying scientific methods. Usually, active participation is mandatory and attendance can be restricted. If you only attend, you will gain 3 ECTS. If you take an exam/paper, you will gain 8 ECTS.

<sup>3</sup> Kolloquium: A seminar where (advanced) students present and discuss their B.A. or M.A. proposals, research questions and/or findings.

Credit points

At the Faculty of Social Sciences students can achieve: 3 ECTS for attendance and participation (e.g. attendance and presentation) and additional 4 (or 5) ECTS for an exam/paper. Accordingly, you will get a maximum of 7 ECTS credit points for a course on Bachelor level and 8 ECTS for a course on Master level.

It is highly recommended to clarify with the lecturer at the beginning of each course which requirements are needed to accomplish 3 ECTS or 7 (8) ECTS. If you do not want to take an exam/paper, you will not get a grade for this class (only a certificate of attendance).
