Global Health Justice Postdoctoral Programme

Research Centre “Normative Orders” at Goethe University Frankfurt

Duration and Starting Date: 10 Months, starting on October 1st 2023.

The Global Health Justice Postdoctoral Programme, funded by Höpfsche Stiftung and directed by Prof. Dr. Rainer Forst and Prof. Dr. Darrel Moellendorf at the University of Frankfurt, is seeking to appoint up to two post-doctoral fellows for the academic year 2023/2024. The Fellows will be part of the Frankfurt academic community, especially of the Normative Orders Research Network.

Candidates should have completed a doctorate in philosophy or the social sciences and should have proven potential to conduct and publish research at an international level. Candidates' research should fall within the programme's areas of focus, especially questions of global health and transnational justice.

Conditions of Award

We offer a grant of 2400€/month. The grant is tax-free in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 3 no. 44 EStG (German Income Tax Act).

Additional benefits include a return trip (to a max. of 2,000 €) from the fellows' home town to Frankfurt and a mission allowance of 2,000€/year. Health insurance and accommodation expenses are not included in the package, although assistance in purchasing a suitable German health insurance will be provided.

Fellows will be provided with office space at Normative Orders. They will be expected to take an active part in the Center's activities and workshops, and to present their ongoing research to the members of the Center.

Fellows are expected to reside in Frankfurt area for the whole duration of their stay.
