The Faculty of Medicine of the Goethe University Frankfurt am Main and the University Hospital Frankfurt, Centre for Internal Medicine, Clinic for Internal Medicine 1 (Director: Prof. Dr. med. S. Zeuzem), invites applications for the following position as public employee starting as soon as possible:

Professor (W3) for endocrinology, diabetology and nutritional medicine

The aim of the professorship is to continue and expand the scientific and clinical focus of the field of endocrinology, diabetology and nutritional medicine. Thematically, the focus is on transgender medicine, endocrine and neuroendocrine tumors, including pituitary tumors, as well as sonographic procedures, especially in thyroid diseases and NALFD in diabetes mellitus. Your clinical tasks are broad and require close interdisciplinary cooperation. The position is associated with the management of the DEGUM III Ultrasound Unit, the working group Transgender Rhein-Main as well as the DDG or DGFF-certified Diabetes Centre and the Lipid Outpatient Clinic. The position is also associated with the function of spokesperson for the DKG-certified focus S4 endocrine and neuroendocrine tumors within the framework of the University Centre for Tumor Diseases (UCT). Expertise in the field of endosonographic diagnosis and therapy of adrenal tumors and neuroendocrine tumors of the pancreas is desirable. The focus on nutritional medicine deals in particular with malnutrition in hospitals and nutritional therapy for short bowel syndrome. Expertise in these areas is desirable. The Medical Clinic 1 plays a leading role in internal intensive care medicine. Clinical experience and the additional specialization in internal intensive care medicine are desirable.

The prerequisites for application are a completed university degree in medicine, doctorate and habilitation or proof of equivalent scientific achievements, which may also have been achieved in the context of a junior professorship or outside the university sector. In addition, a high level of scientific qualification with internationally visible publication achievements, pedagogical suitability through proof of modern teaching and further education experience as well as the successful acquisition of evaluated third-party funding are expected.

The formal hiring requirements are defined in sections 67, 68, and 70 of the Hessian Higher Education Act (Hessisches Hochschulgesetz).

Goethe University is an equal opportunity employer, committed to diversity and inclusion. In particular, we are welcoming applications by qualified women and people with a migrant background. At Goethe University, a special emphasis is placed on creating and sustaining a family-friendly work and research environment. Where applicants are otherwise equally qualified, preference is given to candidates with disabilities or equivalent. The same applies to women in fields in which they are under-represented.

To apply, please send a CV, a list of publications, an overview of your research and teaching activities as well as transcripts and a selection of recent course evaluations online at https://berufungsportal.uni-frankfurt.de by 17th July 2023.
